The Publisher's Desk.

We have recently been shown, and had the pleasure of inspecting, a series of artistic pictures entitled "Homes on the Hudson," projected and published by H. Whittemore, Esq. No. 58 Read street, this city. The beautiful homes—situated upon the charming banks of the "American River"—of some of our most prominent men, together with some historical pictures, especially the home of Washington Irving, and "Looking up the Hudson from West Point," with which Mr. Whittemore has presented us, are especially fine. The artistic work is done by the Autotype process and is printed by Mr. E. Bierstadt, who is turning out some of the finest lithographs in the country. The pictures are so arranged that Mr. Whittemore will be glad to send his catalogue to any one desiring it. Address him as above, No. 58 Read street, New York city.

The January number of Accident News, of which upwards of 50,000 copies were circulated, in no way fell short of the bright, crisp pliancy which has characterized it from its first issue. The illustrations are numerous and of high artistic merit as well as
